

development departments such as Agriculture, Engineering, Health, Education, etc., in those areas. Bachelors or married officers whose wives are also interested in welfare work will be preferred. Married officers with children will not be able to take their children with them to the forward areas but will have to make separate arrangements for their education, etc., at Shillong or elsewhere.

6 Ministries are requested to circulate this Memorandum to all qualified officers serving under them and to forward any applications received along with the confidential rolls of the officers, so as to reach the Foreign Secretary, Ministry of External Affairs, Government of India, New Delhi, by the 15th of October, 1953. It is suggested that applications from officers who possess the necessary qualifications should not ordinarily be withheld as it is important to ensure as wide a choice of officers as possible. The applications will be examined by a Special Selection Board and the applicants considered suitable for interview will receive intimation accordingly. An acknowledgment of this Office Memorandum is requested.

T. N. KAUL,
Joint Secretary.
